Denise: You had probably better get me a definite date for your husband or a couple of day in the first week of September and I will need the young man's name and when he plans on being there and a little bit about him. Thanks. Margaret

Margaret,

Trust all is well! I wanted to check in with you as I have a couple of people headed to Beijing in September. They would be honored to meet with Ambassador Branstad at the Embassy.

The first person is my husband Dr. David Bubeck he is in Research at Dupont-Pioneer. He will be in China in early September on a Corn tour.

The second person is a young man who will be visiting China. If this would be a possibility I can get you the information you would need.

Looking forward to hearing from you soon!

Thank you for all you do!

Blessings,

Good afternoon Jenifer!

I saw you upstairs this morning and realized that I failed to accommodate this request. I apologize! Let me see what I can do.

In the meantime, what would be the topic of the meeting?

Thanks!

Good afternoon, Austin!

I am inquiring about the possibility of a 30 minute meeting with Governor Reynolds yet this summer.

I'd like to discuss with her a conversation I had recently with Nebraska Lt. Governor Foley, among other items.

Recognizing this is an extremely busy time for her, I have no trouble waiting a bit for an opening in her calendar.

Thank you, Austin!

Subject: Meeting with Gov. Reynolds

Date: Tuesday, July 11, 2017 at 11:12:01 AM Eastern Daylight Time

From: Scott Valencia

To: Austin Jacobs

Good morning,

Just prior to Gov. Reynolds assuming her new role, Iowa Right to Life and the Coalition of Pro-Life Leaders had requested to have a meeting to discuss a few key items

1. What 35 organizational members of the coalition could do to support the Gov. in her new role.
2. Changes that are going on within the Pro-life community (continued growth of the coalition, and the joining of several of the organizations under a new corporate structure, making them the largest pro-life group in the state)
3. Marketing and media plans for the 2017-2018 year on both a political and educational front.
4. To discuss common goals and focus for next session.

As our coalition continues its growth, we want to continue the focus on building a symbiotic relationship with the Governors office and our legislators at the capitol to achieve all of the goals that save lives.

We are hoping to secure a meeting prior to the Iowa State Fair so that we make sure our messaging is in concert with our common goals. We will work around Gov. Reynolds schedule to make that happen.

We appreciate your help, and look forward to the meeting.

You're awesome, Austin!

Thank you so much. The meeting topic would be current affairs in the Iowa pro-life movement.

I appreciate you.
